

Communication preferences

Here are some suggestions of recording options you might want to consider for people you work with who are blind, deaf or deafblind.

Ideas as follows:

How do you prefer to communicate with people?

- Speech
- Writing
- British Sign Language
- Hands On Signing
- Sign-supported English
- Deafblind Manual (Fingerspelling)
- Block Alphabet
- Other
- If Other, please specify

How do you prefer people to communicate with you?

- Clear speech for residual hearing / lip-reading
- Writing
- British Sign Language
- Hands On Signing
- Sign-supported English
- Deafblind Manual (Fingerspelling)
- Block Alphabet
- Other
- If Other, please specify

How would you like us to contact you?

- Landline Phone: Voice
- Mobile Phone: Voice
- Minicom / Textphone / Text Relay
- Email
- Face to Face
- Fax
- SMS / Text message
- Face Time / Skype
- Other - please specify

How will you contact us?

- Telephone: Voice
- Minicom / Textphone / Text Relay
- Email
- Fax
- SMS / Text message
- Face Time / Skype
- Other - please specify

How should we correspond with you?

- Print posted
- Directly to you?
- To a family member / carer / friend / other?
- Email
- Print (font) size required.
- Colour preference for print / paper
- Audio Tape
- Braille
- BSL Video / CD / DVD
- Easy read
- Other - please specify

What support do you need to access our service?

- British Sign Language Interpreter
- Hands On Signing Interpreter
- Sign-supported English Interpreter
- Deafblind Manual (Fingerspelling) Interpreter
- Block Alphabet Interpreter
- Communicator Guide
- Sighted Guide
- Assistance dog owner